

SUPPORT THE INDUSTRY EXHIBIT AT IBSx

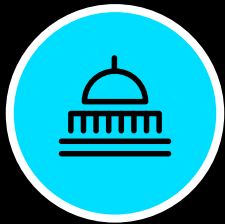

Thousands of builders and industry professionals start their decision-making process with the information, tools and resources they get at IBS – and IBSx is no exception. Your IBSx participation is not only important for your business, it directly supports, funds and protects the residential construction industry.

YOUR BUSINESS

IBSx, the industry's most comprehensive, business-building event, supports industry growth efforts produced by NAHB.

NAHB, the IBSx show organizer, serves as the voice of America's housing industry with its members constructing more than 80% of new homes built in the U.S.

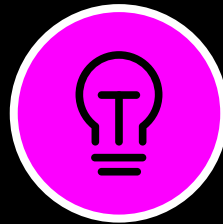

Advocacy

NAHB is the industry's voice on Capitol Hill and was instrumental in deeming residential construction as essential during the COVID-19 pandemic.

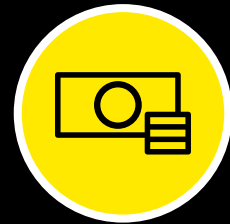

Litigation

NAHB supports legal efforts to secure favorable housing construction conditions.

Expertise

Year-round and at IBS, NAHB provides valuable industry education.

Economics

NAHB produces exclusive economic resources that provide valuable insights into the issues and trends driving the housing industry.
